

NLSLA Clinics and Centers

- Self-Help Legal Access Centers assist people with family law matters (divorce, custody disputes, and paternity actions), housing matters (evictions), and other legal matters such as name change and guardianships. Self-Help Legal Access Centers are located in the Van Nuys, Pomona, Chatsworth, and Antelope Valley Courthouses. Self-Help Legal Access Centers are open Monday-Friday 8:30am-12:30pm and Mondays-Thursdays 1:30pm-4:30pm.
 - Volunteers are expected to commit for a minimum of six months, or one semester if they are a student, for at least 2 shifts/week.
- Domestic Abuse Self-Help (DASH) Clinic assists litigants with domestic violence restraining orders. Litigants are provided information to shelters, counseling, and other social services available to victims of domestic violence. DASH clinics are located in the Van Nuys, Pomona, Chatsworth, and Antelope Valley Courthouses. Clinics are open Mondays-Fridays 8:30am-12:30pm.
 - Volunteers are expected to commit for a minimum of six months, or one semester if they are a student, for at least 1 shift/week.
- Debt Relief Clinic assists low-income litigants with what it means to be sued for a debt, consequences of losing debt collection lawsuits, and ways creditors can attempt to collect a judgement. The Debt Relief clinic is open every Fridays from 8:00am-12:00pm in the Chatsworth Courthouse.
 - Volunteers are expected to commit for a minimum of six months, or one semester if they are a student.
- Shriver Housing Self-Help Center assists people with evictions. The Center is located in the Los Angeles (MOSK) Courthouse. The Center is open Mondays-Fridays 8:30am-4:30pm
 - Volunteers are expected to commit for a minimum of six months, or one semester if they are a student, for at least 2 shifts/week.

- Clean Slate Clinics assist people who have been negatively impacted by the criminal justice system. The clinic assists with clearing criminal records and restoration of civil rights, including aid with expungements, Props 47 and 64 petitions, employment rights counseling, and reduction of felonies to misdemeanors. The Clean State Clinic is located in Lancaster and Glendale.
 - Volunteers are expected to commit for a minimum of six months, or one semester if they are a college or law student. Volunteers must commit to coming to the monthly clinics for at least 6 months. There may also be work to be done remotely.
- S.A.V.E.S Clinic assists people who are unable to secure safe and affordable housing due to their criminal record. The S.A.V.E.S clinic assists with evictions, section 8 issues, unlawful rent increases, and unsafe living conditions. It also helps people with clearing criminal records and restoration of civil rights, including aid with expungements, Props 47 and 64 petitions, employment rights counseling, and reduction of felonies to misdemeanors.
 - Volunteers are expected to commit for a minimum of six months, or one semester if they are a student